The following rules will apply to all Junior Accounts and “Smiley Saver Club” accounts opened with Angus Credit Union from the 1st May 2009

1. All Junior Accounts including “Smiley Saver Club” accounts opened in a minor’s name are the sole property and owned by the named minor.

2. The procedure for share withdrawals from a Junior Account including “Smiley Saver Club” accounts shall be that the Parent or Guardian of the named minor (regardless of whosoever deposits monies into that account) shall be the sole signatory for share withdrawals until the minor reaches the age of seven years.

3. The parent/guardian and Junior member must sign for share withdrawals until the minor reaches the age of sixteen years.

4. Angus Credit Union will request an Annual specimen of the named minor’s signature after the age of seven years to take into account the minor’s progressive development in writing skills.

5. No annual service charge (currently £5.00 for adult membership) will be deducted from a Junior Savings Account.

I will supply Angus Credit Union with a passport size picture which will be attached to my Membership File as a future form of identification when making share withdrawals.

NOTE: We can take your photo during the registration process at no cost to you. This only applies to members over the age of twelve.
